ATTENTION ALL THESPIANS

The Lee Historical Society is looking for people to perform in a Lee History Comes Alive program on November 4th (dress rehearsal for school groups) and 5th (public program). The event will take place on site at the historic Cartland House, Walnut Grove School, and Cartland Family Cemetery, all on Cartland Road. The actual performances (in place discussions with 2-5 people) are only 8-15 minutes long, but will be repeated as groups rotate through the various sites. Depending on the number of people in the audiences it will take one or several hours.

We need the following cast members: 6 men ranging from 16-50 years old; 3 women ranging from 16-60 years old; 2 men to play the famous anti-slavery orator Frederick Douglas and escaped slave Oliver Gilbert AND 4 guides. No experience is necessary.

LEE LIBRARY TRUSTEES' CORNER

The Trustees would like to thank everyone who has taken our online survey – we’ve gotten some great comments – they run the gamut from “I find the Library small, cramped and claustrophobic” to “Why is there a need to expand at all? The library is excellent as-is.” Best of all are the many, many compliments the staff has received.

If you haven’t taken the survey, there’s still time – it will remain online through the weekend at <https://surveyplanet.com/575b254eae4716c05943027d>

Paper copies are still available at the library and we will also have them available at the library table at “A Walk in the Words” – the literary garden festival being held at Bedrock Gardens on September 17-18.
